Comment. According to observations made by other sources, Alt Loennowitz airfield has been reoccupied by a new fighter regiment since early December 1951. Flying activities observed indicated that the pilots of this regiment were in the initial stage of retraining on MiG-15s. It is believed that the regiment has not been equipped with aircraft to its authorized strength. On 11 January, however, some MiG-15s were probably parked in the hangars.
